In 2001 during his tour at Quantico, he was appointed an Adjunct Associate Professor at Uniformed University School of Health Sciences in Biomedical Informatics and taught @ first course in the newly founded Biomedical Informatics Department.

In 2002 he reported to Naval Hospital Jacksonville as a Staff Physician. While at Jacksonville, he was Chair of the Credentials Committee and Vice Chair for the Executive Committee of the Medical Staff.

In 2006 he took orders to Navy Medicine East as AHLTA Clinical Champion to initiate implementation and eventually sustainment of AHLTA and other electronic solutions. During this time he served as Chair Primary Care Advisory Board at the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery and served on faculty of the Clinic Management Co